About the role

Environmental Enforcement Officer

Directorate – Housing and Public Protection

Department – Waste, Public Realm and Enforcement Services

Grade – D

Salary – 27,969 PA increasing to 30,341 PA following 12 months satisfactory performance (+10% unsociable hours allowance when applicable)

Hours - 37 hours per week – Monday – Friday

Flexi-time Available. Free Parking.

About the role

Are you up for a challenge Environmental Crime, such as Fly Tipping and Littering, is becoming a national issue but Dartford Borough Council are dealing with this problem robustly and are looking for an enthusiastic, highly motivated individual to join our extremely busy Environmental Crime Enforcement Team. We are looking for someone, ideally, with an enforcement background, capable of working on their own but who is also a strong team player who can fit into a busy multi- agency environment.

Waste, Public Realm & Enforcement Services is a multi service environment and you will also be involved, on occasions, with the work of other officers who deal with enforcement, parks and open spaces, events, licencing and town centre business crime partnerships. On occasions, you may deputise for the senior environmental enforcement officer, attend and contribute at regular information and best practice meetings, with other regional borough environmental enforcement teams, the KCC intelligence team, when required. Previous experience of working in a law enforcement, security, community safety or similar role is desirable as is dealing with the public in, sometimes, difficult situations with the ability to stay calm under pressure. Relevant knowledge of environmental crime legislation would be advantageous, but more important is the ability to be confident, diplomatic and assertive. Good ICT skills are required together with the ability to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing. You should also enjoy analysing information and problem solving as this will be an integral part of the role.

This post is considered by DBC to be a customer-facing position. The Council therefore has a statutory duty under Part 7 of the Immigration Act (2016) to ensure that post holders have a command of spoken English sufficient for the effective performance of the job requirements.

Skills, Knowledge and Experience:

- You should be capable of carrying out detailed investigations and interviews, often in partnership with the Police or Environment Agency, to tackle fly tipping and other environmental crime offences.
- You will be required to prepare case files and attend Court to give evidence.
- The interviewing of alleged offenders, statement taking, case file preparation/ case building along with intelligence gathering, and dissemination, court attendance and giving evidence are key elements of this position.
- You will be involved in promoting public awareness of environmental crime issues as well as other duties that may include dealing with unauthorised encampments, fly tipping, public space protection orders and offences associated with Civil Enforcement.
- You should be conversant with relevant legislation and guidance such as the Environmental Protection Act 1990, Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984, the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000 and the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014.
- You will be required to operate both on foot and in a vehicle, performing duties such as visiting sites of fly tipping and fly posting etc. to obtain and record evidence.
- You will be required to take the appropriate enforcement actions, such as serving of a summons to court or issuing Fixed Penalty Notices for environmental crime offences.

Some evening, weekend and Bank Holiday working may be required for which a 10% allowance is paid. You should have a full, clean driving licence as you may, on occasions, be required to use your own vehicle, for which an allowance will be paid.

About the Council

Why Dartford

'Dartford is a place of quality, choice and safety. A place where great communities, concern for the environment and a successful economy support people who want to live, work and enjoy leisure time.'

Dartford Borough Council is one of the most exciting places to work in the region. Not only are we working on some special projects to improve life in the borough but we also have one of the most accessible offices in the country.

Our Commitment to Equality and Diversity

Dartford Borough Council is committed to equal opportunities policies and action to ensure that the best candidates for any post are appointed irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex and sexual orientation. We operate a name-blind recruitment process and remove candidates' personal information to ensure that people will be shortlisted for interview on merit.

Our aim is to remove barriers to employment, promotion and development so that all employees have equal access to these on the basis of ability and the requirements of the job.

We are committed to challenging inequality, discrimination and disadvantage and to achieving the highest standard of employment practice. Equality of opportunity for all sections of the community and workforce is an integral part of this commitment, and we welcome applications from all sectors of the community.

The Council has signed up to the Disability Confident Scheme. Through Disability Confident, we are working to ensure that disabled people and those with long term health conditions have the opportunities to fulfil their potential and realise their aspirations. We are committed to interviewing all disabled candidates who meet the minimum criteria for the role. In addition the Council will where possible make reasonable adjustments to ensure the interview process is accessible to disabled candidates.

Core Behaviours

Values are a key component of a healthy workplace culture because they clarify how the Council and its staff should behave and help to ensure that everybody is working towards the same goals. They provide the framework within which employees can test decisions, accomplish tasks, and interact with others.

The Council's core behaviours reflect the special qualities that attract, engage and retain the talent that we want; and will be used to shape our culture by influencing the work we do, and how we do it. These behaviours focus the way we expect employees to approach daily business practices, conduct communications and interact with one another.

The Council has five core behaviours that guide the way we think and act as an organisation, and each member of staff is responsible for incorporating them into their day to day roles.

Core Behaviours

Communication

Demonstrated by:

- Actively listening to customers and colleagues and asking questions to provide clarity
- Seeking to understand customer and colleague needs and proactively looking for ways to exceed expectations
- Being clear, concise and courteous
- Providing regular and timely feedback
- Leaving a positive impression of the Council

Respect

Demonstrated by:

- Creating trusted relationships with customers, colleagues and communities to achieve mutual goals
- Treating customers and colleagues with respect and dignity and valuing others as individuals
- Learning from others and valuing differences
- Being thoughtful, tactful and considerate
- Acting with integrity, loyalty and trust

Accountability

Demonstrated by:

- Taking the initiative and ownership of our decision, actions, performance and behaviour
- Learning from our mistakes and seeking out opportunities to improve
- Delivering on promises to customers and colleagues
- Being proud of what we do

Adaptability/Flexibility

Demonstrated by:

- Displaying a 'can do' attitude and being innovative
- Embracing change
- Getting out of our comfort zones and creating our own opportunities
- Looking for the positive in every situation
- Challenging negativity and bad behaviour

Collaboration

Demonstrated by:

- Sharing ideas and challenges with our colleagues and actively seek out their opinion
- Working together beyond departmental boundaries to achieve superior results
- Ensuring everyone has an equal opportunity to share and contribute ideas
- Being part of the solution
