Pre-Employment Checks

Cathcart Street Primary School actively promotes a culture that helps safeguard children and young people and discourages and prevents inappropriate people joining the workforce (both on a paid or voluntary basis). As your employment would be in a regulated position under the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act 2006 as amended by the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012, you would be subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring Service check which includes a Barred List Check. You cannot perform work in a regulated position if you have been barred from working with children by the DBS, or if you have been barred or disqualified from working with children by another organisation. School posts are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act so all convictions must be declared. Cathcart Street Primary School aims to promote equality of opportunity for all the right mix of talent, skills and potential. Having a Criminal Record will not necessarily bar you from employment; this will depend on the relevance, the circumstances and the background to your offence(s). This means you are required to declare any convictions, cautions or reprimands which you may have even if they declaring any prosecutions pending against you. This information must be provided under separate, confidential cover to the Chairman of Governors before interview and we guarantee that it will only be seen by those who need to see it as part of the recruitment process. Failure to disclose such information could result in your dismissal or discipline by the School.

The Asylum & Immigration Act 1996 and the Immigration (Restrictions on Employment) Order 2004 require employers to establish that an individual is entitled to work in the UK prior to that person commencing employment. This entitlement must be evidenced at interview stage and a copy will be retained once a formal offer has been made and accepted. An employee who has provided false information (or omitted material information) on appointment could subsequently be subject to summary dismissal.
