DARTFORD
BOROUGH COUNCIL

About the role

Resident Involvement Officer

Directorate – Housing and Public Protection

Department – Tenancy Services

Grade – G

Salary – £41,815 PA rising to £44,341 PA following 12 months satisfactory performance

Hours - 37 hours per week – Monday – Friday. Flexi-time Available.

About the role

Dartford Housing Services really value the contribution our staff make and in return, we offer the opportunity to 'make a difference' and go home at the end of the day with a very real feeling of accomplishment. We are looking for an enthusiastic, self-motivated and organised professional who is looking for a challenging role in a busy housing office environment and join our Housing Team to improve communications with residents, help drive up tenant satisfaction levels and increase participation.

This post is considered by DBC to be a customer-facing position. The Council therefore has a statutory duty under Part 7 of the Immigration Act (2016) to ensure that post holders have a command of spoken English sufficient for the effective performance of the job requirements.

Skills, Knowledge and Experience:

You will:

- Be experienced in customer involvement/resident communications
- Have knowledge of legislation surrounding resident consultation, Regulation of Social Housing (including Tenant Satisfaction Measures and Consumer Standards) and Complaint Handling (including the Housing Ombudsman Service)
- Be passionate about housing and customer service excellence and will be a significant contributor to our vision of being the best Housing Landlord Service in Kent.

Key areas of responsibility will include:

- To make a positive contribution to improving communications with residents, driving up tenant satisfaction levels and increasing participation.
- To increase the use of digital technology in communicating with residents
- To increase resident representation (overall numbers and diversity)
- To work with colleagues from across the Housing Service, to implement initiatives that lead to a tangible increase in the number of residents contributing to the service, responding to consultation, participating in surveys and TSM satisfaction scores.
- To monitor performance for dealing with complaints, Members Enquiries, Freedom of Information and Subject Access Requests performance monitoring process within the Housing Service
- To be an internal advocate of tenants and leaseholders when the Council considers making changes to service delivery
- Working with residents to promote social inclusion and well-being
- Have an innovative approach to public services, improving tenant satisfaction, meeting the requirements of the Government's Regulation of Social Housing, the Housing Ombudsman's Complaint Handling code and delivering the Council's Corporate Plan

You must be able to demonstrate the following:

- Ability to manage and prioritise a busy workload
- Using social media and modern communication platforms
- Confidence, enthusiasm and a flexible approach
- Excellent administration skills, writing complex reports, accuracy and attention to detail
- Experience of customer involvement/resident communications within a housing management organisation
- Knowledge of legislation surrounding resident consultation, Regulation of Social Housing (including Tenant Satisfaction Measures, and Consumer Standards) and Complaint Handling (including the Housing Ombudsman Service)
- Proven ability to learn and utilise new software
- Excellent written and oral communication skills

About the Council

Why Dartford

'Dartford is a place of quality, choice and safety. A place where great communities, concern for the environment and a successful economy support people who want to live, work and enjoy leisure time.'

Dartford Borough Council is one of the most exciting places to work in the region. Not only are we working on some special projects to improve life in the borough but we also have one of the most accessible offices in the country.

Our Commitment to Equality and Diversity

Dartford Borough Council is committed to equal opportunities policies and action to ensure that the best candidates for any post are appointed irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion and belief, sex and sexual orientation. We operate a name-blind recruitment process and remove candidates' personal information to ensure that people will be shortlisted for interview on merit.

Our aim is to remove barriers to employment, promotion and development so that all employees have equal access to these on the basis of ability and the requirements of the job.

We are committed to challenging inequality, discrimination and disadvantage and to achieving the highest standard of employment practice. Equality of opportunity for all sections of the community and workforce is an integral part of this commitment, and we welcome applications from all sectors of the community.

The Council has signed up to the Disability Confident Scheme. Through Disability Confident, we are working to ensure that disabled people and those with long term health conditions have the opportunities to fulfil their potential and realise their aspirations. We are committed to interviewing all disabled candidates who meet the minimum criteria for the role. In addition the Council will where possible make reasonable adjustments to ensure the interview process is accessible to disabled candidates.

Core Behaviours

Values are a key component of a healthy workplace culture because they clarify how the Council and its staff should behave and help to ensure that everybody is working towards the same goals. They provide the framework within which employees can test decisions, accomplish tasks, and interact with others.

The Council's core behaviours reflect the special qualities that attract, engage and retain the talent that we want; and will be used to shape our culture by influencing the work we do, and how we do it. These behaviours focus the way we expect employees to approach daily business practices, conduct communications and interact with one another.

The Council has five core behaviours that guide the way we think and act as an organisation, and each member of staff is responsible for incorporating them into their day to day roles.
